FEATURED BANDS/MUSICIANS AT CLARA'S ON THE RIVER

Diego and the Soulz of Rhythm

After being in many bands over the years, developing a repertoire of music and collaborating with many talented musicians, Diego decided he should create The Soulz of Rhythm and bring a healthy mix of Soul, R&B, Funk, Swing, and Rock 'n Roll to Michigan's music scene. There are many good bands and great songs out there, but Diego wanted to perform unique classics that strike an emotional chord with the audience.

Evan Hyde (drums) is a 2007 graduate of East Kentwood High School. Evan has been performing in the Grand Rapids area since age 14, and has since developed into one of West Michigan's top up-and-coming drummers. He has received outstanding soloist awards from the Western Michigan University and Central Michigan University jazz festivals, and he also performed with the MSBOA All-State Jazz Band at the 2007 Detroit Jazz Festival.

Evan was the recipient of the annual West Michigan Jazz Society student scholarship in 2007, and has been a featured performer for the society on multiple occasions. Evan currently is studying music at Western Michigan University as a jazz studies major. He is son of local musicians, vocalist Edye Evans Hyde and jazz guitarist Michael Hyde.

Playing at Clara's Monday June 24, Thursday July 3, Wednesday August 13

Mary Rademacher

Combine the soulful tones of Natalie, the belty pizzazz of Liza, the swingin' ease of Ella, the flair of Ginger and the warmth and wit of an experienced balladeer and you're describing this multi-faceted jazz & pop vocalist/cabaret entertainer.

From her travels with the USO in the Orient and performing across the United States, Mary is a triple treat when it comes to entertaining a crowd. Based in Grand Rapids, Michigan, Mary entertains regularly in club venues, at corporate events, festivals and private parties throughout Michigan and beyond.
